

LEGAL NOTICE.

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF THE COUNTY OF SALT LAKE, TERRITORY OF UTAH.
The matter of the estate and guardianship of John Murray Armstrong, a minor. Order to show cause why order of sale of real estate should not be made. Thomas C. Armstrong, guardian of the estate and person of said minor, having filed his petition herein, duly verified, praying for an order of sale of said minor's interest in certain real estate therein described, for the purposes therein set forth, and it appearing from the said petition that it is necessary and would be beneficial to the said minor that said real estate be sold, it is therefore ordered by the judge of said court that all persons interested in the estate of said minor and the next of kin of said minor, appear before the said probate court on Monday, the 17th day of March, 1890, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the court room of said probate court, at the county court house, in the city and county of Salt Lake, Utah territory, to show cause why an order should not be granted to the said guardian, to sell so much of the real estate of said minor at private sale as shall be directed by the court. A copy of this order, together with three successive weeks in "THE SALT LAKE TRIBUNE," a newspaper printed and published in said city and county.
Dated February 14, 1890.
G. W. HARTCH,
Probate Judge.
